

March 22, 2020

I trust this brief note finds you and yours staying well.

As you know, we will be engaging our Remote Learning Protocol beginning tomorrow – for at least two weeks.

At this time, we hope and pray for a return to conventional campus curricula and co-curricular activities at that time. We plan to keep everyone posted as early as possible.

In the meantime, you will be receiving correspondence from your teachers regarding the particulars of your child's Remote Learning Protocol.

Our educational goals and objectives; our standards and curricula; our mission and motto; our commitment and care remain the same – undeterred, undiluted, and unwavering. The only thing that will change is the delivery.

Of course, both what is delivered and how it is delivered primarily depend upon whether your student is P3, AP, or somewhere in between. Your child's differentiated Remote Learning Protocol will be conveyed to you by your principal and your teachers. So, be sure to be on the lookout for these important and impactful communiques.

Rest assured that our team has been working hard to prepare for our continued commitment to you, to your children, and to the pursuit of excellence through Christ.

In closing, Psalm 63:6-8 says:

On my bed I remember You.

I think of You through the watches of the night.

Because You are my help,

I sing in the shadow of Your wings.

I cling to You.

Your right hand upholds me.

So, as we continue to navigate and negotiate these uncharted waters together, let's lean on each other – and, let's lean on the One whose right hand holds us together.

Grateful to be serving together,

Keith A. Currivean, Ph.D.
