Dear High School Students and Parents,

During these challenging times, I want to thank you for your grace and patience as we work together to overcome these obstacles that have been placed before us. We don't know God's plans, but we do know that there has never been a time that has been more important to rely on His grace to guide us through these circumstances we are facing.

I want to encourage you to reach out to your friends, relatives, and neighbors to pray for them and to provide the hope and comfort that can only come from our Savior. We may not be able to do that physically right now, but I believe that may be why God provided social networking for a time such as this. I know that you all have been overwhelmed with information the past couple of weeks, so I want to take this time to just encourage you and lift you up before the One who provides the peace that passes all understanding.

May God bless you all!

Greg Tackett, High School Principal
